

The Wanamaker Store. Store Closes at 6 P. M. The Wanamaker Store.

FRUITION—First Fruits of the New Order of Things at WANAMAKER'S

The Wanamaker "Army of Occupation" today holds possession of the entire Basement of our new South Building. Months ago the picket line was thrown through a narrow tunnel, which month by month has broadened. "Squatter sovereignty" has been assumed, for limited periods, by various merchandise stocks—hardy pioneers who braved the strange conditions, to familiarize our public with the new order of things in preparation.

Today one concrete unit of the great Wanamaker plan for the greatest Housefurnishing and Outfitting Store in the world is in its place, complete and ready for its great public service—

The HOUSEWARES STORE IS INTRODUCED

It presents the broadest, most complete and best arranged stocks of kitchen and housekeeping things ever assembled in any store anywhere. The vast floor space, extending from Broadway to Fourth Avenue, and from Eighth to Ninth Streets, provides roomy aisles for comfortable shopping, as well as ample show space to place everything where it can be conveniently seen and examined.

To-day housekeepers will find here scores of housekeeping and cooking conveniences that they perhaps have never heard about. Each day will find something else installed, as we complete our arrangements. Demonstrations of broad interest will make the Wanamaker Housewares Store a permanent World's Fair of Domestic Utilities.

Housekeepers, and all public spirited citizens, are invited to visit the New Store to-day, or at their earliest convenience, to see what the most advanced ideas of modern storekeeping have planned—as illustrated by what is the most modest unit of the new organization for the Service of Furnishers of Homes.

Entrance direct from the Astor Place Subway Station, and by TWO Tunnels under Ninth street, from the Basement of the Stewart Building.

And now a more practical incentive to visit our New Housewares Store to-day: Moving always brings to light articles that have suffered from the handling, and others that do not show up properly among the newer merchandise. Out they go—and mighty good bargains they are.

TRUNKS, BAGS, SUIT CASES and TELESCOPES

Sixty Trunks at a third below the regular prices—Steamer Trunks, Dress Trunks and Wardrobe Trunks no two alike. The variety will meet the needs and wishes of every man or woman who wants a new trunk for steamer or railroad traveling. These prices and dozens of others in between:

Steamer Trunks, 32 in., formerly $5, now $3.30
Steamer Trunks, 34 in., formerly $7.50, now $5.00
Steamer Trunks, 36 in., formerly $10, now $6.67
Steamer Trunks, 38 in., formerly $12.50, now $8.33
Steamer Trunks, 40 in., formerly $15, now $10
Wardrobe Trunk, 50 in., formerly $40, now $26.67

Bags and Suit Cases at a third less than regular prices. About fifty bags and suit cases, slightly marred and soil'd through moving. The assortment includes Bags in alligator, pigskin, seal and sole leather. The shapes are Oxford, club and cabin; 12 to 24 in. long. Former prices were $7.50 to $19. Today they are marked at $5 to $12.65.

Thirty-five telescopes, slightly soiled; 16 to 26 inches; some of canvas, others of fibre. Prices were 75c to $2.50, now 25c to 75c each.

We also place on sale today:

1500 Enamelware Lipped Sauce Pans at 10c each; worth 25c

The handsome Turquoise Blue, white lined, 5-coated Stransky Steel Ware; in 3-pint size. Only three to any one customer. Just to introduce you to the superb qualities of this fine Enamelware, of which we show you every shape and size of cooking utensils that the housekeeper desires.

WOMEN'S APPAREL—Some of the Reasons for First Coming to WANAMAKER'S

Aggressive, intelligent INITIATIVE—this is the primary quality that marks WANAMAKER'S as distinctive, original, exclusive, and advanced, in the styles presented. And unmatched in the values offered.

If you could take the advertising files and review with us the superb list of special garments, designed by us, or from models supplied by us; then measure the value of them—the desirability, beauty, with the price—no matter how much you may now know of Wanamaker achievement, you would be amazed to realize the extent of our unmatched accomplishment.

These are the reasons why no woman, who wants the most advanced styles, the most correct and handsome apparel, at the fairest price, can afford to make a purchase without first knowing what is shown at WANAMAKER'S.

Here are eight representative examples of the exceptional character of Wanamaker garments:

Has Black Kersey Coats at $18—Double-breasted, 45 inches long, semi-fitting back, revers, cuffs and collar handsomely trimmed with braid; lined throughout with satin.

Black Broadcloth Coats at $25—Copied from a late Francis model—51 inches long, fitted back, fly-front, finished with wide straps; lined throughout with fine, soft satin.

Evening Coats at $25—Of various handsome shades of broadcloth, 45 inches long, elaborately trimmed with silk embroidery; lined throughout with white satin. Very remarkable value.

Velour Du Nord Coats at $37.50—Designed after one of our handsomest foreign models. Made of rich black velour du nord; 50 inches long; full, shapely back; lined with soft peau de cygne.

Tailor-made Suits at $16.75—Of Oxford-mixed cheviot; double-breasted. Eton jacket, collarless, trimmed with velvet in contrasting shade; lined with satin. Skirts gored and plaited.

Tailor-made Suits at $25—Of broadcloth; single-breasted, tight-fitting coat, 50 inches long; lined with satin; 17-gored plaited skirt, each gore forming inverted plait.

Cheviot Suits at $30—Double-breasted, tight-fitting long coat in cutaway effect; lined with satin; shawl collar; cuffs and buttons of velvet. Skirt gored, stitched below hips, giving a plaited flare.

Velvet Suits at $37.50—New double-breasted semi-fitting jacket, 19 inches long; lined with satin, trimmed with braid. Skirt gored, forming plaited panels.

WILL OF WM. A. DUEB.

Leaves $35,000 to Mrs. William D. Coster and Her Children.

The will of William A. Dueb, filed for probate yesterday, bequeaths to his daughter, Katharine, wife of Clarence H. Mackay, most of his estate. Mr. Dueb died on October 27, at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Mackay, at Roslyn, L. I. Mrs. Mackay is named as executrix.

For the benefit of Mrs. William D. Coster, of 26 Lexington avenue, Mr. Dueb set aside a trust fund of $35,000, of which she is to receive the income. On her death the principal is to go to Mrs. Coster's children. The only other bequest is one of $1,000 to Alexander Stolz of Yorkville, and another of $2,500 to Clarence H. Mackay, the testator expressing a wish that Mr. Mackay would expend as much as he might choose of it in the purchase of a memento of the testator.

Mr. Belmont Not Suffering a Relapse.

A report that August Belmont, who has been a patient in the General Memorial Hospital, subsequent to an operation for appendicitis, had a bad setback and was hospitalized last night. Those in charge said that Mr. Belmont had contracted a slight cold on an automobile ride he took last week and that this had somewhat retarded his then rapid recovery. Mr. Belmont, it was said, would leave the hospital within a day or two.

CHARGED WITH JEWEL SWINDLE.

Edmund L. Parker, Arrested Here, Said to Be Wanted for Big Job in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—Returning from New York to-day, Central Office Detective Joseph Miller reported the arrest in that city of Edmund L. Parker, wanted here on the charge of defrauding J. E. Caldwell & Co., jewelers, out of diamonds worth $2,227. He is suspected of being the leader of a gang of swindlers operating in all the principal cities.

There will be about four hundred counts against Parker before they are through with him, says Miller, and he and his gang have got away with about half a million dollars worth of stuff, according to the same authority.

Parker has lived in lavish style at Sherwood, Md., a fashionable suburb of Baltimore, where he moved in good society and was known as a man of wealth and cultured tastes. He will be brought here from the Tombs, in New York, for trial, next week.

Parker was arrested on Monday in New York at the Empire Building, in Broadway. Since the day the jewelry firm discovered it had been victimized the Central Office men and Pinkertons had been searching for him. It is charged that Parker called at the Caldwell store last August, represented himself as a member of the firm of celebrating MACY'S 48th Anniversary as a Department Store. MACY'S 3d Anniversary in The New Building. THE LARGEST RETAIL STORE UNDER ONE ROOF IN THE WORLD.

Anniversary Sales Now in Progress

Every Department in the store contributes special economies in seasonable goods—Merchandise you need NOW and can BUY NOW MOST ADVANTAGEOUSLY.

Gift Goods Combining Beauty and Utility.

IF the gift for the wedding or the anniversary is to be quite odd we suggest some novelty wares lately received in the silverware section. In the collection are:—

Tete-a-Tete Sets, comprising Pitcher, Sugar and Creamer; Pitchers of various sizes and styles; Tea, Coffee and Demi Tasse Cups and Saucers.

They could be a part of our great China stocks and not be out of place, as they are combination products of potters and silversmiths. The ware itself is in rich nut brown and olive green. Over the glassy surface is a strapping of solid silver—delicate lacy effects and bold cross-barred designs, some richly etched.

Four to Twelve Dollars

Traveling Clocks. Basement.

LATE importations include Clocks of various sizes—ranging from the ordinary watch size, encased in etched silver, up to elaborately designed timepieces with dials half a foot in diameter.

Shapes—round and squared, the large ones with rounded corners and strap handles. Every one protected by a strong case and padding that will carry it safely through a railroad smashup.

Prices $7.13 to $29.93.

Carpets: A Clearance Sale of Discontinued Patterns in Tapestry Brussels, Body Brussels and Smith's Axminster

ONCE or twice a year we get word from Carpet manufacturers that certain patterns are to be dropped—and new ones marketed to take the places of the old. The word is in the nature of a warning that stocks must be cleared of these particular patterns, as they cannot be duplicated. The warning finds us with a number of full rolls of Tapestry Brussels, Body Brussels and Smith's Axminsters on hand. We have taken them out of regular stocks and reduced prices decisively:—

Our 69c. and 84c. Tapestry Brussels at 58c.

Including weaves from both Smith and Hartford mills; room, hall and stair patterns—with and without borders to match.

Our 98c. Axminster Carpets at 79c. Smith's Axminsters—most popular carpets for parlors; with and without borders to match.

Our $1.44 Body Brussels Carpets at $1.24.

Best quality five-frame Body Brussels, in rich Oriental and floral effects; with and without borders to match.

Imported Wraps: Headliners In The Fashion Show at Macy's

"A wonderfully comprehensive exhibit," says a leading metropolitan daily in telling its readers about the collection of fashionable garments, millinery and dress novelties shown here this season. Continuing it says: "Nowhere in New York can as many exclusive designs in articles of wearing apparel for ladies be found. The display is so extensive that it seems marvellous that one establishment could have found it possible to accumulate such an enormous stock."

Trace it all to the splendid goods-gathering organization of the new Macy's. The foreign organization alone would carry this Macy outer-garment store along on an even level with the best specialty establishment America knows.

Permanent headquarters in Paris—permanent branches in every Art and Fashion Centre abroad, the representatives in charge co-operating with the local department chiefs, who go abroad at regular intervals.

Novelties constantly coming in—model garments for stock and models to copy. Nothing of importance is missed.

Extra incentives now for inspecting these superb stocks; Anniversary Sales in progress throughout the store and the Grand Chrysanthemum Show, made by the American Institute of the City of New York, in the Herald Square Exhibition Hall, on the 9th floor of our building.

After the show, a stroll through the store. The new evening wraps are seasonable and most interesting. Three models—two imported and one domestic—are illustrated above.

One imported Wrap, made of finest quality white broadcloth, draping in full, graceful folds from a prettily designed yoke; trimmings of soft green velvet and applique; full sleeves suggesting coat or cape effect. Price $149.74

Domestic Wrap, for afternoon or evening wear; made of champagne broadcloth, 50 inches long, snug fitting collar, surplice back, brass buttons; neck finished with a light embroidered cape and chenille scarf; sleeves pouched. Price $104.74

Imported White Broadcloth Coat, Empire effect, double breasted; large gilt fastenings, broad revers of corn velvet hand embroidered in dainty flowered design; body trimmed with French-Irish crochet; full sleeves heavily trimmed with crochet and velvet. Price $134.74

Less Expensive Garments on Display

ACCUSES BISHOP DERRICK.

Presiding Elder of Negro Methodists Pres. Charges Against Him.

Dr. S. Timothy Tice, Presiding Elder of the New York Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, announced yesterday that he has preferred charges against the Rev. William B. Derrick of this city. Bishop of the third Episcopal district of the church. Dr. Tice says that he will also take the matter into the civil courts for adjustment. Dr. Tice has drawn up the charges and specifications in the case and sent them to Bishop Henry M. Turner of Atlanta, Ga., the senior Bishop, asking him to convene an ecclesiastical court to consist of a Bishop and four elders. Dr. Tice charges Bishop Derrick with libel, conspiracy, maladministration and other misdemeanors. The charges against Bishop Derrick have grown out of old trouble over the appointment of Dr. Tice as Presiding Elder. Many of the churches rebelled at his appointment.
